

Seacare HSR Forum 2008 – Program

- 08.30-09.00am – Registration – welcome tea / coffee
- 9.00-9.05am Open
Geoff Gronow, Chairperson, Seafarers Safety Rehabilitation and Compensation Authority (Seacare Authority)
- 9.05-10.30am Session 1
 - 9.05-9.20am HSRs - representatives of employees
Martin Byrne, Australian Institute of Marine & Power Engineers (AIMPE) (tbc)
 - the role of an HSR is an under utilised area of the OHS(MI) Act
 - potential to use HSRs to achieve real improvement in meeting national strategy targets
 - international comparison
 - 9.20-9.35am How AMSA can assist HSRs
Clare Ellis, Australian Maritime Safety Authority (AMSA)
 - working together for safety – interaction between HSRs, operators / employers and regulators
 - 9.35-9.55am HSR as a safety leader
Dominic Panetta, Australian Maritime Safety Consultants (AMSC)
 - how can a HSR be a safety leader?
 - how does a HSR assist a company with its onboard OHS?
 - 9.55-10.15am Risk management & issuing of Provisional Improvement Notices (PIN)s
Ray Cooke, Training and Safety Consultants (TASC)
 - 10.15-10.30am Questions & Answers
- 10.30-11.00am – morning tea / coffee and cake
- 11.00-12.30pm Session 2
 - 11.00-11.20am Positive aspects of HSRs
Alan Kneller, Teekay Shipping (Australia) Pty Ltd
 - value of HSRs to an organisation's OHS outcomes
 - how a HSR can assist with onboard OHS
 - challenges of current legislative arrangements
 - improving HSR and onboard employee consultation on and involvement in OHS
 - 11.20-11.40am Offshore Sector experience
Chris Homsey and Neil Butt, Farstad Shipping (Indian Pacific) Pty Ltd
 - the onboard safety issues faced by the sector
 - how onboard employees are involved in addressing these issues
 - the role of HSRs in onboard OHS - now and in the future
 - developing the role of HSRs
 - 11.40-12.00pm Blue Water Sector experience
Geoff Wood, TT Line Company Pty Ltd
 - the onboard safety issues faced by the sector
 - how onboard employees are involved in addressing these issues
 - the role of HSRs in onboard OHS - now and in the future
 - developing the role of HSRs
 - 12.00-12.30pm Questions & Answers
- 12.30-1.15pm – lunch – open sandwiches and fruit
- 1.15-2.45pm Workshops
 - 1.15-2.00pm Workshop 1 – identify key issues and challenges for HSRs
 - 2.00-2.45pm Workshop 2 – develop action plan to address issues
- 2.45-3.00pm Close
Geoff Gronow, Chairperson, Seacare Authority
- 2.45-2.55pm Summation
- 2.55-3.00pm Launch of HSR Handbook

This forum has been organised with the assistance of the Australian Maritime Safety Authority (AMSA), the Australian Institute of Marine & Power Engineers (AIMPE) and the Australian Shipowners Association (ASA).

Seacare HSR Forum 2008 – Information

- title of event
 - Seacare HSR Forum 2008
- theme
 - Seafarers in OHS - Involving HSRs and onboard employees in OHS
- date
 - Sea Safe Work Day (Thursday, 25 September 2008)
- timing / duration
 - 9am to about 3.00pm
- location / venue
 - Port Education Centre, 343-383 Lorimer Street, Port Melbourne (03 9645 3000)
- catering
 - morning tea / coffee and lunch
- purpose
 - assist HSRs and other onboard employees to participate in improving occupational health and safety (OHS) outcomes in the Seacare jurisdiction
- objectives
 - strengthen consultation between operators / employers and onboard employees, particularly HSRs, regarding onboard safety
 - identify use by operators / employers of the processes in the Occupational Health and Safety (Maritime Industry) Act 1993 (OHS(MI) Act)
 - encourage onboard employee awareness of and participation in achieving improved OHS outcomes
 - provide mechanism for sharing knowledge and information between HSRs
 - identify key issues facing HSRs and develop possible solutions
- approach
 - meet, network, participate, share experiences, exchange information
 - presentations and workshops
- outcome
 - operators have broadened awareness of processes provided in OHS(MI) Act
 - onboard employees more aware of how they can be involved in OHS
 - HSRs have strategies to assist them in promoting or ensuring the health and safety at work of employees in their DWG
 - HSR Handbook launched - long and short version
- potential participants
 - seafarers – health and safety representatives (HSR)s and other onboard employees
 - operators / employers – management, OHS / HR staff
 - employee representatives
 - operator / employer representatives
 - providers of accredited HSR training courses
 - regulators
 - OHS professionals
- numbers
 - participant numbers will be limited to about 50 – so early nomination is encouraged
- nomination
 - nominate before COB Wednesday, 17 September 2008
 - use Nomination Form and send to Seacare HSR Forum 2008:
 - Post Seacare Management Section, Comcare
GPO Box 9905, Canberra ACT 2601
 - or
 - Fax 02 6275 0067
 - or
 - Email seacare@comcare.gov.au
(use Seacare HSR Forum 2008 as subject heading, provide details requested in Nomination Form)
 - confirmation of participation will be provided. THERE WILL BE NO FEE.
- further information
 - David Bonny Phone 02 6275 0087 or email david.bonny@comcare.gov.au

Seacare HSR Forum 2008 – Nomination Form

Send by To

Seacare HSR Forum 2008

Post Seacare Management Section
Comcare
GPO Box 9905
Canberra ACT 2601

or

Fax 02 6275 0067

or

Email seacare@comcare.gov.au
(use Seacare HSR Forum 2008 as the subject heading and provide the details requested below)

Participant details

Name

Position

Organisation

Postal address

Phone number

Fax number

Email

Date sent